Thursday	10 Apr 2003	Check-out.

The morning after your arrival, you will be picked up for a full day of sightseeing in Bangkok by its waterways. You will travel by river and canals to the Grand Palace, where you will spend the morning exploring before most of the crowds arrive. Your private tour will include the magnificent Royal Chapel of Wat Phra Kaeo which houses the most sacred Buddha image in all of Thailand Next to the Grand palace is Wat Po, one of Thailand's oldest and largest temples. The temple houses the gigantic gold plated Reclining Buddha and is the headquarters for the Traditional Medicine Practitioners of Bangkok. Next you will visit Wat Arun and then enjoy lunch at a canal side Thai restaurant.

After lunch you will continue exploring Bangkok's fascinating maze of waterways by longtail and rocket boats. The journey goes through the heart of the city, passing towering skyscrapers and the elegant Temple of Dawn, and into bucolic canals, where life is slower and simpler. Stop at a neighbourhood monastery and learn about Thai Buddhism and also visit an old wooden schoolhouse where the kids delight in having visitors.

The evening will be yours to spend at your leisure.
On the 10th you will be transferred to the airport for your flight to Phuket.
